Let me know if you'd like me to touch base w/ the Pineview folks to check on current conditions. At this point, I'll skip the trip as I've got plenty to do otherwise, and making Pineview by 9 Tuesday morning would mean I'd have to miss my pancakes.

Be careful driving.....black-ice can be a bitch! Hope everything goes well w/ Erin's appt. Give me a call and let me know if you need anything. I'll plan on working at home on Tuesday (tomorrow)....5 [REDACTED] B6 . Aaron

Subject Pineview on Wed

Mornin' Aaron,

I think I'll plan to leave Big Valley on Tues at 3 or 4 and head on up the hill to Pineview that night. That way I won't have a 14+ hour day on Wed. I'm planning to get to Pineview at 9, so even staying over in Davis would be an early morning and a long drive.

At the same time, Erin has a checkup tomorrow morning and if things looks close I'll come home Tues night. If you're still interested in going, could you put in a TA to rent a car for tomorrow and just meet me up there? I'll call you on Tues afternoon and let you know one way or the other.
